Askews

Providing a first-class book supply service across the Adult and Children's public library market

Askews is the largest supplier of books and multimedia in the Adult and Children's public library market.

We offer a diverse range of products and solutions to meet the individual needs of both the Adult & Children's library community. With extensive experience in supplying libraries globally, our team of experienced specialists work with librarians and industry partners to provide new and innovative services for the public library sector.

Our website is designed to provide our customers with access to accurate management information and informed selection choices about both pre-publication and backlist stock. A range of selection services for Adult and Children's books, DVDs or CDs is available including our fully managed Supplier Selection offering from our team of qualified librarians and book industry professionals, our unique customer-led online Cascade system via the Askews website as well standing orders for Mills & Boon, reference, Adult and Children's bestseller charts and prize shortlists.

Our solution from ordering to receipt is cost-efficient and hassle-free.

bibliotheca®

Bibliotheca is a global leader in library technology, dedicated to connecting communities with the knowledge and resources they need. Our innovative products and services elevate user experiences, simplify operations, and empower libraries to enrich their communities. With a passionate local team, we're the trusted partner for libraries across the UK & Ireland, committed to quality and exceptional service.

CIVICA

Civica, we make software that helps deliver critical services. From local government to central government, to education, to health and care, over 5,000 public bodies across the globe use our software.

Spydus, our industry-leading library management system, is used by more than 1,500 libraries around the world. Using innovation and automation, we enable library services professionals in large consortia, public and government libraries, schools and higher education institutions to unlock their potential and deliver better outcomes for library communities and citizens.

collectionHQ
data. insight. solutions.

collectionHQ is the world's leading provider of collection performance improvement solutions for libraries. Based on the proven Evidence Based Stock Management (EBSM®) methodology that has been used in libraries for almost thirty years, collectionHQ's products harness cutting-edge technology to analyse data about the library's collection and how it has been used over time to deliver easy-to-use action plans that support continuous improvements. With flexible solutions to accommodate public and academic libraries of all sizes, collectionHQ's team of librarians and data experts provide ongoing support to our library customers so they can optimize collection management workflows, save time and money, improve turnover, and align the collection with user demand.

Open Fifth
Open Source Library Solutions

At Open Fifth, we have the vision to make technology easy for libraries. We focus on enabling library users through high-quality, open source software solutions. Our way of working is characterised by listening, finding solutions, reliable delivery, and above all open communication. Our highly skilled team has a friendly and approachable style in delivering our quality implementation and support services.

We proudly work with customers across all library sectors, including public, academic, health, governmental, museum, law and special libraries. The reason so many customers continue to choose us is that we solve problems, we don't sell software. When libraries join us as a customer, they are gaining the expertise of our developers, trainers, data migration experts, and experienced account managers to support them throughout the journey. As an ISO/IEC 27001 certified company, you can also rely on the quality and integrity of the support we're providing.

Library software we work with includes Koha LMS, Aspen Discovery, Metabase, and more. Come and speak to the team at the Open Fifth stand to learn more.
